Practical Explanation without the Legalese

We do not believe in charging for Bible teaching whether written or oral. The documents on this website are all free and should be considered public domain unless otherwise stated. One restriction is copyrighted material. Copyrights mean that material is not public domain. Only the owner of the copyright can authorize use of such material. So, whereas, this document is public domain, any copyrighted material in it is not public domain. Public domain means there are no restrictions on the independent use of the material, but copyrights mean material cannot be used without permission from the author or owner. Since we have paid strict attention to copyrights, in most cases you can do anything with my documents except sell them as long as you keep the document intact. Footnotes often contain necessary copyright references.

We encourage the use of my documents for educational purposes. They are free. They may be copied, reproduced, and distributed freely. We make no demands upon the user. We grant permission for independent use of the documents. However, some restrictions apply due to copyrights and other matters over which we have no authority. If you wish to use my material, ultimately you will have to answer to God and to the Law of the USA. We are not authorized to speak for God, nor are we lawyers. So, if you get the drift, you are on your own.

Publishing or other Productions

"Teach Me" makes no demands on those who wish to publish, produce, or distribute this material. We make no claim for royalties. This material is available at no cost; it is a grace gift. We grant permission for free use. However, some restrictions apply due to copyrights and other matters over which we have no authority.

If You Still Have Questions

If you are confused about our Document Use Policy, you should probably consult God or a lawyer. However, if you wish clarification, send an email and we will try to answer any question. We do not require notification prior to use of my documents.

I pray in the power of the Holy Spirit.

“With all prayer and petition pray at all times in the Spirit, and with this in view, be on the alert with all perseverance and petition for all the saints.”

PURPOSE:

Prayer is an exhale (breathing out) toward God, a faith-rest principle, and a function of the royal priesthood of every believer. Prayer is a grace privilege and opportunity.

My Prayer House Book

New Testament Verses

Matthew 6: 9 "Pray, then, in this way: "Our Father who is in heaven, hallowed is Your Name."

Matthew 7: 7 "Ask, and it shall be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you."

Matthew 18: 19 "Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything that they may ask, it shall be done for them by My Father who is in heaven."

Mark 11: 24 "Therefore I say to you, all things for which you pray and ask, believe that you have received them, and they will be granted you."

John 14: 13-14 "And whatever you ask in My Name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask Me anything in My Name, I will do it."

1 Thessalonians 5: 17 "Pray continually."

My Prayer House Book

“Not by power, not by might, but by My Spirit says the Lord.” Zechariah 4: 6b

When we pray in the Spirit, the Spirit prays for us and the LORD Jesus Christ intercedes for us. Both are speaking for us, representing us, and mediating for us.

1 John 1: 9 “If we confess our [known] sins, He is faithful and righteous [just] to forgive us our [known] sins and to cleanse us from all [unknown or forgotten sins] unrighteousness [wrong-doings.]”

We know we do not even know how to pray for ourselves, we know God the Holy Spirit makes intercession for us:

Romans 8:26 “In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness, We do not know what we ought to pray for but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express.”

Romans 8:34 “Who is he that condemns? Christ Jesus, who died -- more than that, who was raised to life -- is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.”

THE LORD-GOD prays for us and intercedes for us.
